

OCT 5 1962

Approved For Release 1999/09/07 : CIA-RDP75-
FOIAb3bUTICA, N.Y.
PRESS

CPYRGHT

CPYRGHT

MORNING 28,299

CPYRGHT

Candidates Donovan, Dudley Campaign in Utica Area Today

CPYRGHT

James B. Donovan, Democratic candidate for U. S. senator who had been negotiating for the release of 1,113 prisoners captured in Cuba during the Bay of Pigs invasion, and Judge Edward R. Dudley, Democratic candidate for state attorney general, the first Negro elected Manhattan borough president, will be in Oneida County today.

Dudley is scheduled to arrive in Utica at 3 p. m. He will attend a reception in his honor in Hotel Utica from 3 to 5 p. m.

Donovan will come here from Syracuse. He cancelled an appearance at a rally in Nassau County to insure his presence in Rome tonight.

Both candidates will attend the Rome Democratic Committee's $25 a plate dinner in The Beeches and the annual Taberg Democratic dinner.

DONOVAN, WHO is opposing incumbent Sen. Jacob K. Javits, negotiated the release of U-2 pilot Francis Gary Powers and the release of Frederic Pryor, an American student, in exchange for the release of convicted Soviet spy Rudolf Abel earlier this year.

Powers was imprisoned in Russia and Pryor in East Germany. Donovan was court-appointed counsel for Abel when Abel was indicted in 1957. Abel was convicted but his life was spared on the basis of Donovan's plea that the spy would some day be an invaluable asset in negotiating for the exchange of Americans held by the Communists.

JUDGE DUDLEY

Donovan received $10,000 for defending Abel. He donated $5,000 to Fordham University, $2,500 to Harvard Law School and $2,500 to Columbia Law School.

In negotiating the release of Powers and Pryor, Donovan also secured a pledge from Russian officials they would release Marvin Makinen, another American student, soon. Power, Pryor and Makinen were accused of espionage.

Donovan was awarded the Distinguished Intelligence Medal by the Central Intelligence Agency.

BORN IN New York City, Donovan lives in Brooklyn. He is a graduate of Fordham University and Harvard Law School and served in the Navy during World War II.

DUDLEY WAS BORN in South Boston, Va. and grew up in Roanoke. He is a graduate of Johnson C. Smith University in North Carolina, and St. John's University Law School in Brooklyn.

He has served as assistant counsel to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, executive assistant to the governor of the Virgin Islands, U. S. ambassador to the Republic of Liberia and director of the NAACP's freedom fund.

In 1955 he was appointed by Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York City as a Justice of the Domestic Relations Court. In 1961 he was elected by the City Council to serve out an unexpired term as Manhattan Borough president and in November, 1961, was elected by the people of the Borough in the general election.

James C. O'Shea, a personal friend who nominated Donovan at the state convention in Syracuse last month, will escort the candidate during his stay here.

Special City Judge William A. Gannon will be the toastmaster for the Rome dinner. John F. McCormick and Rexford Small are chairmen.